

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Wagers
On 50th Anniversary

Goldenweds Feted

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin A. Wagers were honored at a reception on Sunday, Feb. 9 from 2 until 4 p.m. at the Bartlett Center, 1318 Cravens Ave., in celebration of their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

The couple was married Feb. 9, 1919, in Deadwood, S.D. Mr. Wagers retired from the railroad in 1947 and went into business in Chadron, Neb., retiring in 1958. The couple spent several winters in Torrance and moved here permanently in 1958.

They are the parents of three children living in the Torrance area. They also have grandchildren and one great-grandson.

Mr. and Mrs. Wagers have both been active in the Torrance Adult Club and among the 200 guests congratulating them at the reception were Mayor and Mrs. Albert Isen. Mayor Isen presented Mr. Wagers with a plaque in appreciation of his services to the city.

Mrs. Bertha Knudsen presented the couple with a gold money tree from the Torrance Adult Club. Another money tree from the officers and district presidents of the California Shuffleboard Association was presented by Fairfax Saunders.

Guests enjoyed a large wedding cake made and given by

Arts-Crafts Classes Open In Lomita

As a part of its cultural and educational activities, the Lomita Recreation Center, 24428 Eshelman Ave., is proud to offer craft and art classes.

The craft classes meet on Tuesdays and Thursdays at 4 p.m. and on Saturdays at 10 a.m. Crafts include styrofoam work, copper modeling, pop-sicle stick building, and painting.

The Art Club meets on Fridays from 4 to 5 p.m. Art projects include still life drawing, water color painting, three dimensional drawing, and basic clay modeling.

Both of the classes are instructed by JoAnn Roberts.

State Official In Visit To Job's Bethel

Bethel 36 of the International Order of Job's Daughters honored Mrs. Van Fossen, deputy grand guardian to the state of California, at a luncheon and initiation meeting.

Luncheon for 60 guests was served by Mrs. Darlene Collins and her committee. The dining room was decorated with huge, colorful flowers by Mrs. Billie Biehler and her committee. Mrs. Van Fossen and the initiates were presented with corsages for the occasion.

Misses Sharon Lechner, Lisa Lindsey and Terry Stokes became members by initiation. Miss Beth Grounds became a member by affiliation.

During the meeting, Miss Barbara Durian, honored queen, presented Mrs. Van Fossen with a gift from the Bethel.

A Charlie Brown Valentine theme was used in decorating for the Bethel's Dance held at the Gardena Masonic Temple.

Officers present with a large number of members and guests were Barbara Durian, honored queen; Carol Collins, senior princess; Melanie Rickabaugh, junior princess; Sue Verecke, guide; and Gloria Dowden, marshal.

Past Oracles Install New Officers

Past Oracles Club, Lomita Royal Neighbors of America, installed new officers at its meeting Feb. 24 at the Gateway National Bank's Community Room.

Installed were Mmes. Hazel Garrison, president; Lillie Caudle, past president; Ragna Hansen, vice president; Jennie Ek, chancellor; and Wanda Wilson, secretary-treasurer. Conducting the installation were Mrs. Maude Swope and Mrs. Bertha Westphal.

Last year the club donated $20 to the John Tracy Clinic for deaf children.

Hula Dance Class Slated

Attend Family Reunion Held In Honolulu

Three area couples have returned from a week long holiday and family reunion held in Honolulu in a home not far from Waikiki Beach.

The couples flying to Hawaii were Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Miles of Torrance, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hutcherson of Newport Beach and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cramlet of El Segundo.

Coming from Okinawa to join the family were Capt. and Mrs. Stephan Cramlet and children, Lisa 2 1/2 and Scott, six months. Capt. Cramlet, in the United States Air Force, is head of a veterinary hospital in Okinawa. Mrs. Cramlet is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hutcherson and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Miles. The Cramlets of El Segundo are parents of Capt. Cramlet.

Capt. Cramlet and his family returned to Okinawa for another year.

Win District Honors

In district competition, Miss Gaye Smith, Torrance Junior Woman Club's "Miss Teenage Citizen," left, seated, won first place and will be entered in state competition, and Barbara Henning, standing, of Magruder school, won second place in the Americanism Essay Contest. The girls shown here are displaying their awards for Mrs. Robert L. Jones, Americanism chairman for the Junior Club. At the district level, Christina Carter, senior at Bishop Montgomery, won an honorable mention in the Hallmark Art Contest. (Press-Herald Photo)
